Welcome to
The USCJ Israel Commission
Israel Internet Resource Guide

Produced by the USCJ Israel Commission & The Department for Zionist Activities, WZO

Your U.S.C.J. Israel Commission is constantly seeking news ways to support the endeavors of our synagogue Israel Affairs Chairmen in North America. To that end, last June, we decided to develop a Israel Internet Resource Guide, working in partnership with the World Zionist organization Department for Zionist Activities, headed up by David Breakstone.

The enclosed resource list was compiled in Jerusalem to help you and your synagogue develop meaningful Israel and Zionist programs. As you will see, they cover a wide range of organizations. They were not approached individually to be part of this guide, but they all have a history of being resources for these important programs.

This first issue represents that collaborative effort. We recognize that no guide can be all-inclusive and we invite your comments. Please, if you use any information, let us know, as your input will help us to become even more effective and user-friendly.

Special thanks to Gila Ansell Brauner, at the Department for Zionist Activities, for her work in making this possible.
