

They say a task such as monumental as our "50th" takes a community, and I would have to say that is a correct statement. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many volunteers that came out and worked with me tirelessly on this massive project and made the OJC 50th Anniversary Weekend something truly amazing and special for everyone. This is a weekend, and event that will be remembered and cherished for many years to come.

Kol Hakavod, a job well done. I am proud to work with you and be a member of this amazing and very special OJC Community.

A Big thank you and shout out to, in no specific order (I hope I do not forget anyone) :
